Its been a while since we showcased an Aussie Shiraz so we thought we'd better do a proper one! The fruit for this wine comes from old and gnarly Barossa vines, many of which are over 100 years old and still on their own rootstocks, something which the concentration and depth in this wine can be attributed to. The generous palate is bursting with sweet blackberries, raspberries and plum with underlying spice. Firm but fine tannins and dark chocolatey nuances continue throughout the lengthy palate with a youthful finish.

A lovely white here – perfect for this season’s food. From a family that have long been a firm proponent of organic and biodynamic farming. The wine shows an expressive nose of white flowers and exotic fruits. The mouth is full with a nice freshness on the finish and an overtone of peach and citrus. Produced from Grenache Blanc and Clairette it has a lovely balance and is a great example of a white Rhone.
